FORM TORPEDO GUARD

British Writer Tells How Americans Turned Tables on Enemy's Boast.

LONDON, Oct. 5 .- A contingent of alve American submarine chasers played a brilliant and novel part in the ren effectively acted as a screen arous the big ships engaged in the bombardment to protect them against submarines. The Americans were under a y fire, but had no casualties. Capt C. P. Nelson and Lieutenant-Commande P. H. Bastedo commanded the squadron A large percentage of the officers and men were of the naval reserve, and reand damaged and probably destroyed an-After the engagement they escorted a British cruiser which had been all by a torpedo safely to the base from which the expedition started. An en-emy hospital ship was also taken in charge for examination. Throughout the bombardment, and when the forces were approaching the harbor, the chasers circled swiftly around the big ships.

Make Good the First Time.

A report received here mays the men had a good time and evidently were pleased with the success of the first schievement of this character the chasers had attempted to work. Haretofore they have been patrolling, dropping depth charges and firing on enemy sub-martness.

Austria-Hungary has at the most only two modern battleships left. She has lest a large number of small craft and sew Durasso, the advanced base of her depicted fleet, has been rendered useless, writes Archibald Hurd, the British naval wast, in the Dully Telegraph, Continuexpert, in the Dolly Telegraph, Continu Richardson, Edward G. Ragata, John B. Farreil, Victor A. Weiser, Frank R. Ulfford.

"Durasso, practically dominating all me side of the Adriatic, was to the Austrians what Zeebrugge was once to the Germans. No effort had been spared to make it an impregnable port, which would be valuable to the Austrians as a base of military forces of the Quadruple Alliance in Albania and in addition be a pistol aimed at the Allies.

"In the scheme of attack provision had been made by the Entente naval forces for the cooperation of American submarine chasers, of which quite a number have been working in the Mediterranean. It was an irony of fate that whereas the Germans boasted of the damage their submarines would do to the Americans it was the submarine

The attack was a direct and menacing challenge to the Austro-Fungarian fleet and it presents another effective blow struck at the enemy.

"The task of making a way through the mine fields in broad daylight must have been a difficult and hazardous one. We shall probably learn that some of our hardy East coast fisharmen, Eng-lishmen and Scotchmen had a hand in clearing the passage for the warshipa."

BUFFALO CAR STRIKE GOES ON. City Council's Plan for Settlement Rejected by Company.

BUFFALO, Oct. 5.—Negotiations to set-ile the strike of street car men falled gain to-day. The plan drafted by the ty Council for city control of the entire City Council for city control of the entire laternational Railway System was rejected by the directors of the company at a meeting this afternoon.

The strike on the Buffalo and Lake Brie traction lines between Buffalo and North East, Pa., was settled and the men returned to work to-day. The Buffalo and Lake Erie cars run over the International's tracks in the city.

The city fuel administrator announced that there would be no interference with the operation of trucks and automobiles used to transport munifion workers to and from the plants to-morrow because of the gasless Sunday order.

CONCRETE BARGE LAUNCHED.

Naval Auxiliary Built at Peckskill la of 1,000 Tons Capacity. PERKEKILL, Oct. 5.—A concrete barge f 1.100 tons capacity, which will carry coal and fuel oil to naval stations in the East, was launched to-day at the ship-pard of Louis L. Brown Commany, Inc., at Verplanck Point, near here. The oil capacity alone is 2,500 barrels. The new boat is one of a series being onstructed for the Government at the Brown company's yards and the ma-terial used in its construction was all furnished from nearby quarries and cement districts. Production of concrete boats was begun at Verplanck Point last fall, and a force of workmen is now busy building and "pouring" other boats to serve the same purpose as those ale the same purpose as those already launched.
